Francesco Gilio Speaking Profile

Marketer – Speaker – Journalist – Motivator

Francesco Gilio is the founder and presenter of Central Marketforce 'Mind-Body Power' Motivational Keynote Presentations. In 1974 Francesco Gilio was born with a genetic skin disorder called Epidermis Bullosa. The ramifications of the skin problem were enormous as the top layer of skin comes off at the slightest knock and sufferers develop a whole array of symptoms affecting the whole body. The seriousness of this skin problem is such that most sufferers live quite a poor quality of life and many pass away at an early age

At the age of fourteen Francesco was introduced to Mind/Body medicine by a family member to help him deal with the condition. Mind/Body medicine is about using the power of thought and emotion to affect and heal your body. From then on Francesco embarked on a healing journey using mind/body medicine techniques and since then he has managed to dramatically improve his condition and remove a host of symptoms. Francesco has used his inner power to

- Eliminate the number of daily blisters on his body by 90%
- Eliminate the number of open wounds on his body by 90%
- Halt the webbing of the fingers on his hands & prevented his toes webbing together
- Stop eye ulcers from reoccurring altogether
- Clear all stomach ulcers
- Stop his esophagus from continually tightening up
- Dramatically improved his absorption of food
- Improve a originally weak immune system & eliminated all previous skin & body infections
- Remove the need to be on long term pharmaceutical drugs
- Reduce dryness in the skin
- Dramatically reduced tightness in the skin
- Reduced body pain by 95%
- Prevent all the other deteriorating symptoms that most sufferers face
- Remove scarring on his body
- Be in normal healthy state (as compared to other sufferers of the skin condition)

Francesco uses his personal experiences to show people what great inner power they all have and how the power of thought and emotion can literally transform their bodies and their lives. Through his overcoming of other types of adversity and his personal experience Francesco also speaks on a number of other topics. Francesco has spoken to teenagers, senior citizens and business groups and therefore can cater seminars to any type of audience

Francesco holds a Masters in Marketing from the University of Newcastle and a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology from the University Of NSW. He is currently undertaking a Masters Of Arts In International Communication at Macquarie University. Francesco is a affiliate member of the National Speakers Association Of Australia and as well as presenting public seminars he is also available for keynote presentations for your organisation To discuss your individual requirements you can contact Francesco directly on 02 9282 6418.
